

Notable Field of Veteran Golfers Starts Play in the Annual Seniors' Tournament on the Apawamis Links

8 WOMEN TENNIS PLAYERS ADVANCE

Miss Wagner Enters Semi-final by Defeating Mrs. Pritchard 6-3, 6-1.

17 PAIRS IN DOUBLES Mrs. Lynch and Miss Handy In Round Before Last in State Title Tourney.

Only eight women survived the second day of play in the annual New York State championship lawn tennis tournament singles at the club yesterday afternoon on the clay courts of the New York Tennis Club, 28th street and Broadway. Miss Marie Wagner, the playing champion, was one of those who went into the round before the semi-final. She defeated Mrs. W. Pritchard by a score of 6-3, 6-1 in the third round.

Seventeen pairs began play in the championship doubles, with Mrs. E. D. Lynch and Miss Handy leading in the semi-final round by virtue of two victories in the second and third rounds. To-day play will begin in the morning and continue through much of the day, so that everything should be worked out to the semi-final rounds before the sun sets this evening.

Among the other strong contenders for the title was Miss Wagner in the singles, and who won their matches yesterday, were Miss Helen Gilman, former champion of Barnard College, Mrs. E. D. Lynch, of the West Side Tennis Club, Mrs. Howard T. Eaton, former Middle States champion, and Miss Hazel Gardner of New Jersey. Miss Wagner and Miss Gilman were in the upper half of the draw and both play to form they should clash in the semi-final round.

Miss Wagner meets Mrs. A. D. Dunne in this afternoon and Miss Gilman meets Mrs. E. D. Lynch. The latter will endeavor to eliminate Miss Gardner. Mrs. Eaton and Mrs. Le Roy are in the lower section of the draw and seem likely to meet in the semi-final round tomorrow, with Mrs. Le Roy favored to gain the final bracket in this half.

Miss Grove Is Eliminated. Miss Grove yesterday by a score of 6-2, 6-3, in a match in which she demonstrated her superiority all the way. There are few steadier back court players among the women of the State. Miss Grove, a former champion of the West Side Tennis Club, is a formidable asset, she possesses a forehand drive that carried a lot of speed and a powerful backhand.

Miss Grove found it practically impossible to place her returns out of her young opponent's reach, and it was almost useless to try to force the net, with Mrs. Le Roy's powerful backhand. Miss Grove did find herself passed by her rival's successfully placed returns down the side lines and across the angle of deep court.

Miss Wagner had little difficulty in putting out Mrs. Pritchard although in the first set the latter put up a serious opposition for a time, through the strength of her splendid driving from deep court. Several keenly contested rallies from the base line featured this set.

Miss Gardner, one of the younger and more inexperienced players in local tournaments, surprised some of the spectators by a surprise by taking the measure of Mrs. E. C. Soth in straight sets by a score of 8-6, 6-0, in the third round. The New Jersey girl conducted a stern opposition in the first set, with the games alternating up to 6 all as both players engaged in spirited rallies, sometimes up to the net and again with the standing on the baseline.

But the fast pace set in the opener, together with Miss Gardner's excellent placing, which compelled Mrs. Soth to do a great amount of running, helped her in the last half of the match, when Mrs. Soth was so tired that she could no longer cover her court with sufficient speed to head off her opponent's attacks. Mrs. Soth's backhand was not as good as her forehand, and she was unable to return the fast pace set by Miss Gardner.

Three professionals, Mike Brady of Guilford, the Woodbury Golf and Country Club, and John Cohan of Stockbridge, are among the players who are making a championship to-day from a fast field of professional golfers, when he completed the seventy-two holes at the Guilford Golf and Country Club. Brady is the first amateur to win the State open. He won the amateur title in 1916.

Women's New York State Championship Singles (third round). Mrs. E. D. Lynch, 6-2, 6-3; Miss Wagner, 6-3, 6-1; Mrs. Pritchard, 6-3, 6-1; Mrs. E. D. Lynch, 6-2, 6-3; Miss Wagner, 6-3, 6-1; Mrs. Pritchard, 6-3, 6-1.

Field of 180 Tees Off in Seniors Golf Tourney

Dr. Bolton, Philadelphia Minister, Has Low Net Score for Eighteen Holes—Many Notables Included in List of Starters.

By INNIS BROWN. The capricious pranks of the weather man in scheduling a rather bleak, cheerless day failed in the least to dampen the ardor of the big field of elderly golf enthusiasts who gathered yesterday at the Apawamis Country Club for the first round of the annual seniors tournament at that historic course. One hundred and eighty entrants faced the starter, and the field contained many of the prominent men who have made this one of the most notable golf events of the season.

That is but a part of the story. Those who go to the club yesterday will hold forth to-day in the second round of the thirty-six hole schedule. Then on Thursday the second wave will jump off. The force now held in reserve numbers the first round of the annual seniors tournament at that historic course. One hundred and eighty entrants faced the starter, and the field contained many of the prominent men who have made this one of the most notable golf events of the season.

Four Classes Grouped. As usual competition is grouped in four classes. Entrants of fifty-five to sixty years of age constitute class A; sixty to sixty-five, class B; sixty-five to seventy, class C; over seventy years, class D. Handicaps, however, are not arranged according to age. By a rather peculiar method of things class A entrants came home with the lowest scores. Rev. J. Gray Bolton, a venerable divine of the Quaker City who had the honor of being the first to tee off on the day for the first two days last year, shot a 79 for the eight holes. He is allowed a handicap of 25, which gave him the low net score for the day with 74. Right behind him came Mr. William M. Pritchard, Gloucester, Mass., who owns to seventy-eight summers, with a net 75. His gross score was 101, with 26 handicap.

TWO VALE TENNIS PLAYERS SURVIVE

One Cornell and Swarthmore Entrant Also Remain in Intercollegiate Tourney.

Special Despatch to The Sun. HAVEN, Pa., Sept. 9.—Two Yale, one Cornell and a dark horse entry from Swarthmore survive in the thirty-first annual intercollegiate tennis tournament, which reached the semi-final round on the Merion Cricket Club courts this afternoon.

As was expected, Chuck Garland, the Yale star, went through the third round, but the game which he played against G. W. Helm, captain of the Harvard team, was a surprise to the fair sized gallery. Garland won the first set 6-4 and then won the match by taking the next set 1-1. Thus in two days playing only two games have been scored against him.

It was merely a warm up for Garland, and he followed by playing a practice match against William T. Tilden, 20, national runner-up. The other Yale player to get into the semi-finals is K. N. Hawks, who staged one of the real surprises of the tournament by eliminating H. T. Kallenbach of Princeton.

The Tiger youth who won the intercollegiate championship last year was erratic in the first set and the Eli came through with a 6-2 score. Kallenbach rallied in the second set and won, and Hawks chalked up a 6-4 score, which put the Tiger star out of the tourney. Kallenbach comes from Yonkers, N. Y.

Dudley of Swarthmore Surprises. Next to Hawks' flashy work, the playing of J. W. Dudley of Swarthmore was a surprise. He first eliminated Harry E. Brown of Princeton in the second round, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5, and then came back and put J. B. Morse of Yale out of the running, 6-6, 6-4. Dudley comes from Washington, D. C., and is a member of the national championship tourneys in the national capital.

WALTER COX WINS EMPRESS STATE STAKE

Famous Reinsman Drives McGregor the Great to Victory in Straight Heats.

Special Despatch to The Sun. SYRACUSE, Sept. 9.—Walter Cox, king of New England harness racing, achieved the ambition of his career at the Syracuse Grand Circuit meeting to-day when he piloted McGregor the Great, fleet son of Peter the Great and Ruth McGregor, to a straight heat victory in the classic Empire State $10,000 stake for 2 1/2 mile trotters. Cox not only won the event but established a new record in the first heat which McGregor stepped in 2:03 1/4. It was the fastest time a trotter ever made in the history of the Empire State Grand Circuit.

McGregor the Great, a bay horse, was owned by Walter Cox and driven by Walter Cox. He was a son of Peter the Great and Ruth McGregor. He was a champion trotter and had won many races before.

LUCILLE EQUALS RECORD AT BELMONT

Runs Mile in 1:36 3-5 and Beats Naturalist—Peter Piper a Victor.

By HENRY V. KING. S. C. Hildreth's Lucille beat Naturalist, Star Master and Enfield, and equalled the one mile track record in the Manhattan Handicap yesterday afternoon at Belmont Park. His victory was a clean cut one and proved that he is the best sprinter in the country. He carried 120 pounds to 127 for Naturalist, but gave Mr. Widener's renowned gelding at least a ten pound beating.

At the end of the journey, which he covered in 1:36 3-5, he was a length and a half in front of Star Master. Naturalist was two lengths further back.

The Manhattan is for all ages. When inaugurated at Morris Park in 1911 it was six furlongs. It was later increased to seven furlongs and in 1916 was extended to one mile. Eight of the best milers in the country were named to start, but Purchase, Vauxhall, Com Tassel and Over There were withdrawn. With them out the race became an extremely open one and until speculation started it was not clear who would win. But Lucille had the most every round and was backed heavily and consistently until at last he was the favorite 2 to 1.
